VOL XXXV NO 5

WAUSEON, OHIO, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1918

$1.50 PER YEAR

FULTON COUNTY WAR CHEST

Campaign to Raise Fund of $100,000
Per Year in Fulton County to Meet the County's Share of War-Time
Benevolences, Including Red Cross
Work—Will Start Monday, May 20.

The week beginning Monday, May 20, has been designated by the President of the United States, who is also president of the American Red Cross Society, as the time for a campaign to raise from the people of the nation the sum of $100,000,000 for the work of the Red Cross in Europe and the United States. Last year a similar amount was given by the people of this country and up to May 1, 1917, the present year $77,721,912.22 of this amount had been appropriated and used in this work, absolutely necessary, which the government cannot do, but which the people must do. The Red Cross Society to do. Before mid-summer the entire amount of the first Red Cross War Relief Fund will have been expended. The work must be continued; it is absolutely necessary; therefore, the call for one hundred million more which will continue this work of mercy for another year.

In another column appears statistics showing how the first fund has been used and the character of the work in detail, which the Red Cross Society is doing. But necessary and inclusive as is the work of the Red Cross Society, it is by no means the only necessary and important work that must be carried on by the American people during the continuation of the present war. The Y. M. C. A., E. of C., Community buildings, Civilian Relief, and the many other agencies that are ministering to the needs, physical, moral, spiritual, of our American soldier and sailor boys, and the many who are made destitute or brought to dire need by the war. All these must be continued for the duration of the war.

In order to meet all these needs it has been necessary in the past to carry on a separate campaign for each fund, but this has taken time and energy on the part of persons who could hardly be spared from their usual posts of duty in these times; to say nothing of the waste of time of those who are being solicited. In order to avoid all of this, communities have devised a plan known as a "War Chest Fund." Columbus, Ohio, has led in the development of this plan which makes it possible to secure subscriptions to a fund which will care for all these causes with one campaign. In Columbus the plan was carried out with great success, and that city has certainly "gone over the top" in providing for these war-time emergencies. Toledo is now in the midst of a campaign of this kind with every prospect of having a fund at the disposal of the community to take care of its needs in these war-time emergencies. Toledo is now in the midst of a campaign of this kind with every prospect of having a fund at the disposal of the community to take care of its needs in these war-time emergencies.

At a general meeting of the War Activities committee of Wauseon, held previous to the launching of the Third Liberty Loan campaign, the War Chest plan was discussed and it was decided by general consent that following the Liberty Loan campaign this plan should be put in operation in Fulton county. Recently a meeting was held by workers along the various lines of war work and Judge F. H. Wolf was selected as county chairman of the Fulton county War Chest fund, also chairman of the various departments of the county. He was called by such a campaign, and on Monday evening of this week a meeting of workers was called. The plan was outlined, individuals were assigned their duties and general instructions given. The plan briefly outlined as it is proposed to apply in Fulton county is this:

An Executive committee of twelve, with the chairman, will be charged with the direction of the campaign. The county, for the purposes of this campaign, is divided into 19 districts, practically the same divisions as those made by the census for the Third Liberty Loan campaign. The Liberty Loan organization will be used for the solicitation for the fund and every resident of the county will be solicited; each district will have a list of the persons to be solicited will be used as in the Liberty Loan campaign. These cards must be returned to the central Executive committee, whether or not a subscription is made. A tentative allotment will be made to each person of a subscription to equal the amount of each month, and this amount is to be paid monthly through some bank in the county, the bank to be designated by the subscriber. These banks will forward the money paid to the treasurer of the fund in Wauseon. At the time the subscription is taken the collector will fill out two cards which will record the amount of the monthly subscription, the name of the person making the subscription, the bank through which the subscriber will pay such subscription and blank spaces on which to record receipt of payments made. One of these cards will be given to the subscriber and one sent to the bank designated. These subscriptions are for the duration of the war and from the fund so created all the war needs outside of the government loans are to be met; with this exception, the amount so subscribed will not cover membership fee in the Red Cross. All disbursements will be made by a committee of thirteen; one chosen from each of the thirteen districts into which the county is divided, as explained in the foregoing, and no funds will be paid out without the consent of the committee.

At the meeting Monday evening, Mr. Harris, who has scored such a success in leading the people of Fulton county to the greatest financial achievement in the history of the county, was called upon for advice. (Continued on page 8)

WAS A VISITOR IN HIS OLD HOME TOWN

Hon. Will Fuller of McAlester, Okla., started homeward last Saturday morning after spending several days among his old friends in Wauseon.

Mr. Fuller is wearing a service flag with two stars; one for his son John, who was killed in action, and one for his son-in-law, who is an officer with the American Expeditionary Forces in France. John is a first lieutenant in the National Army, located at present at Camp Pike, where he is making "expert" rifle and machine gun men out of the selective men assigned to that detachment.

Mr. Fuller himself had just finished a tour of Oklahoma, speaking in the intimate of the American Red Cross and the Third Liberty Loan; himself in the service of the country to the extent of his ability. Will enjoyed exchanging reminiscences of the Wauseon of 20 years ago, and his friends enjoyed hearing him tell his experiences in the new state of Oklahoma. One incident of his tour of Oklahoma was the measure of the patriotic sentiment in Oklahoma. It occurred on a railroad train on which a venerable appearing old man was traveling. He was a native of Wauseon, and his two grandsons whom he had been to visit in a military training camp, and of whom he was very proud. The man was a dandy in his appearance, and he was going to have a vaudeville. They just built a big stage in it and have curtains and everything. THE COURT ROOM

Judge Bowersox Dissolves Injunction
in Metamora Telephone Controversy—
Special Grand Jury—Indicted,
Arraigned, and Sentenced—Howard
Case Before Court of Appeals.

The Metamora Telephone controversy came to an end so far as the court is concerned last Friday, when Judge Bowersox rendered his decision in the case. He dissolved the injunction against the Ogden Mutual Telephone company and others, restraining them from erecting lines and placing telephones in Metamora and surrounding territory. This case has had the attention of court, lawyers, witnesses and litigants for nearly two weeks. Roughly outlined, the principal facts in the case are that the Metamora Telephone company had secured an injunction against the Ogden Mutual Telephone company, restraining them from placing and operating telephones in Metamora and vicinity. The plaintiff prayed that the injunction be made permanent on the ground that they were already in the contested territory as an organized company, and were furnishing adequate telephone service in the contested territory. The defendants in contesting the petition of the plaintiff urged that the plaintiff was not furnishing adequate telephone service, and that it was on this account that lines had been erected and phones placed in the contested territory.

Saturday last the case of Emma Williams vs. Charles Williams, divorce, was heard before Judge Wolf, and taken under advisement by the court, who ordered defendant to pay plaintiff $7 a week for support of two minor children until further orders from the court. A special grand jury, called Saturday, considered the case of Charles Robasser, charged with shooting at members of his family. Three witnesses were examined in this case, and the jury returned an indictment charging shooting with intent to kill. On Tuesday of this week the Robasser case was again before Judge Wolf and was arraigned before Judge Wolf and Boone started with Robasser for Columbus.

The case of Huber Howard came before the Court of Appeals in Toledo Thursday. No decision had been rendered up to time of going to press.

The petit jury for the April term of Fulton County Common Pleas Court has been called for May 27.

WAUSEON'S PART
The village of Wauseon has made a record to be proud of in its participation in the Liberty Loan campaign, and there are still some cards that are unreturned. There were 627 bond buyers in the village of Wauseon and they purchased bonds to the amount of $171,700, oversubscribing the quota of $114,000 by $57,700; or over 50 per cent. The next call will be for the War Chest fund and to bring up our quota on the War Savings and Thrift stamps.

SPRING IN FRANCE

A Letter That Shows That Our Boys in France Realize the Bigness of the Job They Have on Hand—How the Y. M. C. A. Helps—Interest in Folks and Affairs at Home That Never Fags.

"Over Here," April 12, 1918.
Dear Folks:
Have not heard from any one for two weeks now, so haven't any letters to answer. Did expect to hear from you this week, letting me know how everybody was, but guess the mail is delayed. Am working every day and the time goes quite fast. The weeks roll around before I hardly know it and hope the time will soon come when we can all pack up and start on the way home, but guess it is quite some ways off yet. Sometimes we think it will be soon and then again everybody thinks that it is a long way off, for there is a big job ahead of us all.

Every night there is something doing in the Y. M. C. A. building here. Tonight they had a band concert and tomorrow night and Monday night they are going to have a vaudeville. We have a dandy building here now. They just built a big stage in it and have curtains and everything. The man was a dandy in his appearance, and he was going to have a vaudeville. They just built a big stage in it and have curtains and everything. The man was a dandy in his appearance, and he was going to have a vaudeville. They just built a big stage in it and have curtains and everything.

The weather is nice here now, especially today, but it has been raining for about two weeks now. All the trees are out in bloom and some of them have big leaves on. All of the fields are green and it is beautiful. My bunk mate and I took a walk down the river Sunday evening, about seven o'clock—it was just getting dark and it was just beautiful. It was so quiet and still, we could hear everything so plain. We were back from the river about half a mile and away up on the ridge—could see far across to the hills on the other side. I saw a fox, a rabbit, and a squirrel. I saw a fox, a rabbit, and a squirrel. I saw a fox, a rabbit, and a squirrel. I saw a fox, a rabbit, and a squirrel.

I received the second box that Mary sent the other day, which included a big Easter egg. Am going to keep it as long as I can, for it is a dandy. The soldiers over here can not receive any more boxes or parcels unless we make out an order requesting them and have the order signed by an officer. Then we have to send the order home, at least once a week, and I will do the same. Let me know how all of the folks are. It is hard work to write to them all, but I will do the best I can.

Wishing you the best in all things, and with love to all,
BOSTON.

SONS OF FORMER SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
In "The Standard," one of the prominent national Baptist newspapers, of April 20th, is an extended account of the Scott Brothers, Harold and Carey, whose father, many years ago was principal of the Wauseon High school, and who left his school work here to enter the Baptist ministry, later still going as missionary to Japan. The older of the sons, Harold, graduated from Denison University in 1911, taught four years in Roberts College, Constantinople, and was taking post-graduate work in Columbia University when war was declared between the United States and Germany. He came back to the United States last November and enlisted in the Marine Corps, where he has made a record as next to the highest in proficiency in rifle shooting, being one of eight in his company to qualify as "sharpshooter" in his company.

Carey, the second son, taught for three years in Japan, after graduating from Denison University in 1914; came back to the United States last November and enlisted in the Marine Corps, where he has made a record as next to the highest in proficiency in rifle shooting, being one of eight in his company to qualify as "sharpshooter" in his company.

COUNCIL MEETING

Cedar Street Ordinance Reconsidered—Amendment to Closing Ordinance—Shoop Avenue Improvement Delayed—Traffic Regulations to Be Amended.

Council met last Monday evening with every member present, including Mr. Henry Williams Jr., who has recently returned from Florida.
There seemed to be a fairly full docket. Much to the surprise of some who were present in the council chamber, the Cedar street ordinance, which went down in ignominious defeat at a previous meeting, was brought from its grave in the archival cemetery over which Clerk King has supervision by a councilman who thought he might vote differently on the ordinance if it was brought up again. After discussion of the matter the council voted to bring the ordinance on the table for reconsideration placed on the first and second readings on suspension of the rules, and held for final action at the next regular meeting.

An ordinance to amend the ordinance regulating the closing of pool and billiard rooms, bowling alleys, and other places of public amusement extending the closing hour on Saturday nights one hour, during the summer, was presented and passed under suspension of the rules.

A resolution amending the resolution fixing the salaries of employees of the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs, which fixes the maximum salary of Superintendent of the Water Works at $150 per month and engineers at $90 per month, was passed.

The repair of Shoop avenue was reported on by the chairman of the Street committee, who said that in conference with the county commissioners he learned that that board has determined not to make permanent repairs on the Ottokeo road, which is the northern extension of Shoop avenue, this season, and suggested that it would be unwise to make permanent repairs on Shoop avenue until such time as the county commissioners were ready to do the same on the extension road. It was ordered that necessary temporary repairs be made on this street, and the matter was placed in the hands of the Street committee for further investigation and report.

A motion prevailed to ask the Water Works board to move the fire hydrant at the corner of West Oak and Fulton streets to the curb line of Fulton street.

A petition to cut down a tree in front of the residence of Mott Roberts on East Oak street was referred to the Sidewalk committee with authority to grant petition at discretion of the committee.

The traffic regulations were considered. A committee was appointed to amend said regulations. Usual claim ordinance was passed and Council adjourned.

ELECTION BOARD ORGANIZES

Fulton County Board of Deputy State Supervisors of Election met and organized last Wednesday afternoon. F. A. Barber was elected chief deputy; Q. O. Eastman, clerk. Members are F. L. S. Dwyer, W. L. Biddle, and William Lambert.

RED CROSS NOTES

General Pershing Asks Home Folks Not to Send Needless Articles to Boys in France—A Red Cross Record—County Supervisor—Local Reports.

General Pershing has cabled from France that port and transportation congestion has become so acute that it is most inadvisable for people to send non-essential gifts to individuals or organizations in Europe. An examination of the contents of more than 5,000 bags of mail showed that many thousands of articles were being needlessly shipped abroad. For example, 3,874 pounds of candy and 2,838 packages of chewing gum were found. These things are easily and cheaply obtained at the canteens provided by the Red Cross and other relief organizations in Europe. The mail for the American forces abroad amounts to more than 250 tons a week, with the result that an enormous amount of army freight is delayed. A little less on the part of the home folks will show the justice of General Pershing's order, and it is hoped that the Fulton county folks who have boys "over there" will give no cause for complaint on this score.

Another record has been made by the American Red Cross. The French government requested a hospital for the wounded moved from a hospital in eastern France menaced by German airmen, and within twelve hours a tent hospital of 500 beds was at its destination.

An account of the "get together" meeting held recently in Fulton county was given in the current number of the Lake Division News.

Mrs. Howard Lyon has been appointed Fulton county Supervisor for the Red Cross. Mrs. Lyon will endeavor to assist branches in any way to bring about maximum efficiency.

The Wauseon Chapter D. A. R. has given $24 for the support of French war orphans. The Woman's club of Wauseon will give $36 to provide for one child. This club is also helping with the "Furlough Camps" for soldiers.

FINISHING UP TAX ASSESSMENT

PRISONERS OF WAR IN THE UNITED STATES MUST WORK

Included in War Department regulations regarding the employment of prisoners of war and interned alien enemies are the following statements:

All classes of prisoners excepting commissioned officers and such others as are physically not fit for labor, will be required to perform work necessary for their support or for the upkeep of their prison barracks. Interned enemy aliens will not be held for compulsory labor except as provided in this paragraph. Prisoners of war, excepting officers, warrant, petty, and noncommissioned officers, may be required to work for the public service—they must be authorized to work on their own account. Under exceptional circumstances, when specially authorized by the Secretary of War, they may, upon their written request, be authorized to work on their own account, and upon their written request, may be authorized to work in the same manner as other prisoners of war, except that they will be employed in a supervisory capacity only.

An order for labor will be regarded as a military command, and prisoners failing to obey such order will be punished accordingly.

When employed on work that is necessary for their comfort, or for the upkeep of the prison barracks in which they are interned, prisoners will receive no compensation. When the work is done for the government prisoners will be paid at the rate according to the work executed; when the work is for other branches of the public service or for private persons, the conditions of and the compensation for such work will be set in agreement with the representatives of said branches or persons and the adjutant general of the army.

Fruit prospects have decreased since April 1, with the exception of apples, which show a gain of 1 point. Average prices in the state show wheat at $2.08, corn $1.54, barley $1.78, oats 97c, rye $2.07, potatoes $1.75. Hay runs from $19.90 for mixed, to $24.05 for alfalfa.

Pythianism was born in this country at a time when the men of this nation were saturated and at strife with each other because of the civil war. It has done much to reunite the men of this nation and upon the broad foundation of Friendship has built the method of the nation into a wall of protection for ideals and homes which makes this country what it is, the greatest Republic the world has ever known. Friendship which develops confidence in the honor and integrity of others and inspires honor and integrity in the individual, and with it all and through all an unwavering fidelity to the principles of truth and justice. These are the things that prepare the men of the nation for such a crisis as the world has come upon in these days.

STATE S. S. CONVENTION

Ohio State Sunday School Convention at Springfield May 28 to 31—Fulton County's Delegation—Large Attendance Expected.

Fulton county will have the largest delegation of accredited representatives in its history at the coming state Sunday School convention at Springfield, May 28 to 31, if W. G. Theobald, Archbold, succeeds in the work he has been asked to undertake by the state headquarters at Columbus.

Mr. Theobald has just been notified by Columbus headquarters, that this county has been given 20 delegates at the conference, practically double the number assigned in other years. "The Springfield convention will be the biggest in the history of the organization," Mr. Theobald declared today, "and our county now has a chance to beat the rest of the state by the size of the crowd we send down there. Leading Sunday school specialists of the world will give addresses."

Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman of Illinois, temperance advocate in the United States Congress, will come from Washington to speak before the convention Wednesday, May 29, at Springfield. He is called the modern Lincoln, because of his striking resemblance in face and beliefs to the great President.

Memorial day will be observed as Administration day at the convention. As it is a holiday, it is believed a large crowd of those interested in Sunday school problems will attend from here, in addition to the accredited delegates. Frank L. Brown of New York, secretary of the World's Sunday school association and superintendent of the second largest Sunday school in the world, and Howard J. Gee of East Orange, N. J., recognized Sunday school executives, will be the main speakers.

The war has made great changes in Sunday school work, and problems arising from war conditions are among the main topics before the convention. Sunday school executives advocate the use of religious organizations for war relief work instead of the formation of new relief units.

An attendance of 4,000 is expected at Springfield. Accredited delegates will receive free entertainment on the Harvard plan, according to which Springfield delegates will furnish lodging and breakfast to the delegates at their homes.
